listing service in which Firm or its agents participate a non-exclusive, perpetual license to use the Seller Materials, including the rights to display, reproduce, distribute or make derivative works from the Seller Materials. Seller agrees to indemnify and hold Firm and its agents harmless for any and all claims resulting from use of the Seller Materials under the terms of this license. 16. ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS. The following additional terms and conditions shall also be a part of this Agreement: 17. DUAL AGENCY. Seller understands that the potential for dual agency will arise if a buyer who has an agency relationship with Firm becomes interested in viewing the Property. Firm may represent more than one party in the same transaction only with the knowledge and informed consent of all parties for whom Firm acts. (a) Disclosure of Information. In the event Firm serves as a dual agent, Seller agrees that without permission from the party about whom the information pertains, Firm shall not disclose to the other party the following information: (1) that a party may agree to a price, terms, or any conditions of sale other than those offered; (2) the motivation of a party for engaging in the transaction, unless disclosure is otherwise required by statute or rule; and (3) any information about a party which that party has identified as confidential unless disclosure is otherwise required by statute or rule. (b) Firm's Role as Dual Agent. If Firm serves as agent for both Seller and a buyer in a transaction involving the Property, Firm shall make every reasonable effort to represent Seller and buyer in a balanced and fair manner. Firm shall also make every reasonable effort to encourage and effect communication and negotiation between Seller and buyer. Seller understands and acknowledges that: (1) Prior to the time dual agency occurs, Firm will act as Seller's exclusive agent; (2) In its separate representation of Seller and buyer, Firm may obtain information which, if disclosed, could harm the bargaining position of the party providing such information to Firm; (3) Firm is required by law to disclose to Seller and buyer any known or reasonably ascertainable material facts. Seller agrees Firm shall not be liable to Seller for (i) disclosing material facts required by law to be disclosed, and (ii) refusing or failing to disclose other information the law does not require to be disclosed which could harm or compromise one party's bargaining position but could benefit the other party. (c) Seller's Role. Should Firm become a dual agent, Seller understands and acknowledges that: (1) Seller has the responsibility of making Seller's own decisions as to what terms are to be included in any purchase and sale agreement with a buver client of Firm: (2) Seller is fully aware of and understands the implications and consequences of Firm's dual agency role as expressed herein to provide balanced and fair representation of Seller and buyer and to encourage and effect communication between them rather than as an advocate or exclusive agent or representative; (3) Seller has determined that the benefits of dual agency outweigh any disadvantages or adverse consequences; (4) Seller may seek independent legal counsel to assist Seller with the negotiation and preparation of a purchase and sale agreement or with any matter relating to the transaction which is the subject matter of a purchase and sale agreement. Should Firm become a dual agent, Seller waives all claims, damages, losses, expenses or liabilities, other than for violations of the North Carolina Real Estate License Law and intentional wrongful acts, arising from Firm's role as a dual agent. Seller shall have a duty to protect Seller's own interests and should read any purchase and sale agreement carefully to ensure that it accurately sets forth the terms which Seller wants included in said agreement. (d) Authorization (initial only ONE). Seller authorizes the Firm to act as a dual agent, representing both the Seller and the buyer, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in Paragraph 17. Seller desires exclusive representation at all times during this agreement and does NOT authorize Firm to act in the capacity of dual agent. If Seller does not authorize Firm to act as a dual agent, the remainder of this paragraph shall not apply. (e) Designated Agent Option (Initial only if applicable). Seller hereby authorizes the Firm to designate an individual agent(s) to represent the Seller, to the exclusion of any other individual agents associated with the Firm. The individual designated agent(s) shall represent only the interests of the Seller to the extent permitted by law. (NOTE: When dual agency arises, an individual agent shall not practice designated agency and shall remain a dual agent if the individual agent has actually received confidential information concerning a buyer client of the Firm in connection with the transaction or if designated agency is otherwise prohibited by law.)
